Kapan Marg, Kathmandu, Nepal

One day Namobuddha Tour

Namobuddha, situated on the top of the hill, which is scenic and wonderful. It is a delightful Hiking Holiday package near the Kathmandu valley. Namobuddha Day Hiking is intended to the people who don't have enough time to explore stunning landscape and Himalayan region. It is an astonishing walk on the foot hill and reaches NamoBuddha is wonderful hill top about 45 Km. east of Kathmandu. Namo Buddha is Greetings to the Lord Buddha in its meaning. It is an antique and prominent Buddhist monastery in Nepal. The surrounding is populated by the ethnic Tamang settlements. There is an interesting tale related to the history of the Monastery, how a young prince sacrificed his life in order to satisfy the hunger tigress. During the hunting tour, a prince saw a hunger tigress lying on the ground with her cubs. Her situation was very much miserable that she could not walk for hunt. Seeing such situation the prince cut and fed his flesh and fresh blood to the tiger family. When the king went to search his lost son, he found his remaining bones. Later it was buried there. There is a famous shrine and stone slab built regarding the historical event. The prince is regarded as Buddha, who reincarnated in the Lumbini.
